SHORTENINGS IN THE LIST:

abv. = alcohol by volume

13-17,9 %

18 % or more

[c*] = client brewer; A brewer that actually don't own their own brewery, and as a result brew at various different breweries, often in different countries. Good examples from Denmark and Sweden are Mikkeller, To Beer, Flying Couch, Djævlebryg, Pladderballe, Ugly Duck and Omnipollo. Other terms used instead of "client brewer" are cuckoo brewer, tenant brewer and gypsy brewer. So if you think you have a Danish or Swedish beer and can't find it in the list, look under i.e. Belgium and USA. Another thing is licence brewer; a brewer that has bought the right to use a label of another brewery, or if a brewery outsource brewing to another brewery because of lack of capacity.

ext. = external, extra, extended, extraterrestrial or extraordinary, for example:

ext./120420/ = Stora öl – små bryggerier (the first festival arranged by "Sveriges oberoende småbryggerier", in translation "Swedish independent microbreweries") ext./xx05xx/ = Danske Ølentusiaster ølfestival® (annual beer festival in May each year in Copenhagen, DK) ext./xx10xx/ = Great Swedish Beer Festival, Slagthuset, Malmö. Annual Swedish microbrewery festival.

ext./220514/ = Mikkeller Beer Celebration, Copenhagen 2022 (MBCC 2022).

ext./220813/ = Brewskival, Helsingborg. 101 micro breweries from all over the world, especially from USA.

ext./221029/4 = Great Swedish Beer Festival, Slagthuset, Malmö. Annual Swedish microbrewery festival.

B22/221012-14/6 = Vörtstyrkan 40 year - anniversary trip to Belgium (Turnhout and Brugge).

Stopped adding beer festival tastings from 2023 and onwards. Too few participants from Vörtstyrkan.

Erling Valentin Jirle, Permanent Secretary, the Beerclub Vörtstyrkan, 13 January 2026.
